Public Comment:

Randy Konifka, Bridge Ave., "The last couple of weeks I have seen the Guilderland Ambulance in our city assisting us on calls. The response time is 20-30 minutes. Empire has staffing issues. Every town provides life support from fire department. Our residents are the ones who suffer."

Council Member Smith, "When others are here, where are our ambulances? Are they on calls?"

Mayor Keeler, "We have doubled the ambulance in the City. Others are here for mutual aide. The problems are that the ambulances are tied up at the hospitals waiting in line."

Carl Kovatchitch, Pike Creek Dr., "I have some frustration with a neighbor. We are afraid of them. They are constantly putting garbage on my property line. This garbage piles up and is lowering my property value."

Steve Napier, Director of Community Development presented the quarterly report.
