

Hudson Waterfront Park

Project Description

The Hudson Waterfront Park Project is designed to provide the City of Cohoes with its first dedicated public access point to the riverfront in recent years. This project will include the construction of a park containing picnic tables, a public dock, kayak/canoe launches, and a pavilion, among other things. This project will also provide a connection with the existing Delaware Ave Trail, which operates as a portion of the Empire State Trail.

Project Progress

Task	Status
Design	In Progress
Private Development	In Progress
Bid Phase	Pending
Construction	Pending

Project Funding Overview

Project Design

Funding Source	Amount
City of Cohoes	$10,533
NYS Dept. of State	$94,800
Total Cost	$105,333

Project Construction

Funding Source	Amount
Non-State (Pending)	$319,550
Prime Companies (Committed)	$80,000
NYS Dept. of State (Awarded)	$900,450
Total Cost	1,300,000

